

Marking Rubric

Your assignment will be evaluated based on the following criteria:

Criteria & Weighting	D Range D- D D+	C Range C- C C+	B Range B- B B+	A Range A- A A+
Final report 35%	Not submitted or contains very few required sections. It is not written as an academic report in both style and content.	Only a few of the required sections in the report are present. The explanation needs more detail and clarity. Changes to the initial plan are mentioned but need to be justified. The report is written formally and technically, but some things could be improved in spelling, grammar, terminology, headings, formatting, and citation with the following APA version 7. The GitHub link is assessable, but we cannot see the tracking coding history with each team member's contribution.	Most of the required sections in the report are present. The explanation is lacking detail and clarity. Any changes to the initial plan are mentioned and justified. The report is written in a formal and technical manner with formal writing, correct spelling, grammar, terminology, headings, formatting, citation, using APA version 7 style for the report, links (e.g., assessable GitHub link with tracking coding history with the contribution of each team member if you are in a group project), input/ output of your project, etc.	This report covers the whole development process of the project. The report must reflect your understanding of the software development and research process thus far on a week-by-week basis. Your final report must include a conclusion around all findings you have made throughout your project, providing insightful information about your chosen topic. This is a complete report written formally and technically with formal writing, correct spelling, grammar, terminology, headings, formatting, and citation with the following APA version 7, links (e.g., assessable GitHub link with tracking coding history with the contribution of each team member if you are in a group project), input/ output of your project, etc.
Presentation with MVP demo 30%	The Demo is not ready to present. Your supervisory team is not satisfied with your MVP demo in graphical design (UI) and coding (backend).	Present a demo of your project with a few required features within your IDD report. There are a few bugs in your Demo to run all components/ features properly.	Present a demo of your project with some required features within your IDD report. There are no bugs in your Demo to run all components/ features properly. Your supervisory team is still satisfied with your MVP demo in graphical design (UI) and coding (backend).	Present a demo of your project with all required features within your IDD report. There are no bugs in your Demo to run all components/ features properly. Your supervisory team is satisfied with your MVP demo in graphical design (UI) and coding (backend).
Presentation with clarity 15%	All the required elements in the presentation slides have been included/described with ambiguity or are not included/described at all. The presentation is not completed in the allotted time.	All the required elements in the presentation slides have been included/described with some missing details. The presentation is completed in the allotted time (each student: 15 minutes + 5 minutes Q/A time).	All the required elements in the presentation slides have been included/described with less clarity. The presentation is completed in the allotted time (each student: 15 minutes + 5 minutes Q/A time).	All the required elements in the presentation slides have been included/described with clarity and the presentation was completed within the allotted time (each student: 15 minutes + 5 minutes Q/A time).
Presentation & contribution 20%	Poor contribution to the presentation by the student. Poor presentation and communication techniques have been showcased by the student.	Student has minimally contributed to the presentation. A satisfactory level of presentation and communication techniques have been showcased by the student.	Student has sufficiently contributed to the presentation. A proficient level of presentation and communication techniques have been showcased by the student.	Student's contribution to the team presentation is excellent and evident. An outstanding level of presentation and communication techniques have been showcased by the student.
Total 100%				